

ELCA MISSIONARY PROFILE

The Rev. Dr.
Soliette López
Mexico

EDUCATION

Doctor of Medicine and General Surgery: Catholic University "Redemptoris Mater"
Bachelor of Theology: Evangelical University

HOBBIES

I'm from Nicaragua, grew up in the Lutheran Church, and what I'm most passionate about is combining my two callings to serve others. I love teaching, but I'd never be a teacher in a school; I can go from crying to laughing in two seconds. I really enjoy food and different flavors, but I don't like cooking, which is why I married someone who does, I have to be in a really good mood to cook, and I practically only cook for my daughter and my volunteers.

CHILDREN

Maia Isabel (4)

CALENDAR

Ordination Date: July 24, 2011

Birthday: November 17

CONNECT

Companion Synod(s): Grand Canyon Synod (2D) and Northwestern Ohio Synod (6D)

I have two major responsibilities. The first is to accompany young adults in their process of leadership development and spiritual growth, as they navigate a different context and learn to live with the communities that welcome them. And the second is to journey with our companion church and companion organizations in Mexico as we work to bring hope, peace, and justice into the world.
