

Did You Know? Booklist for October 2026

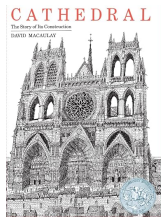

You already know your St. Luke's Library has a treasure trove of children's books, but did you know that many children's books are not just for children? Some books are so beautifully written, or illustrated, or photographed, adults just must experience and enjoy them too. Here's a partial list of some of our favorite "not for children only" books.

Beautiful Moon: A Child's Prayer by Tonya Bolden

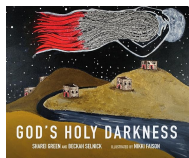

Born on the Water by Nikole Hannah-Jones

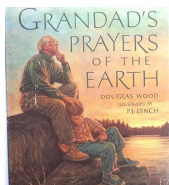

Cathedral: The story of its construction by David Macaulay

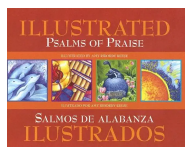

Families by Susan Kuklin

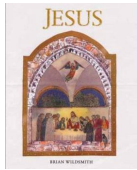

God's Holy Darkness by Sharei Green and Beckah Selnick

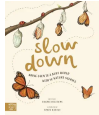

Grandad's Prayers of the Earth by Douglas Wood

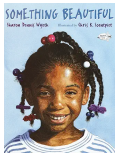

Illustrated Psalms of Praise: Salmon de Alabanza by Amy Ribordy Reese

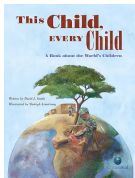

Jesus by Brian Wildsmith

Slow Down: 50 mindful Moments in Nature by Rachel Williams

Something Beautiful by Sharon Dennis Wyeth

This Child,, Every Child: A book about the World's Children by David J. Smith

The Totally True book of Surprising Bible lists by Marc Olson and Carla Barnhill

Thoughts to Make your Heart Sing by Sally Lloyd-Jones
